HPD Honors National Police Week

May 11, 2011

The Harrisonburg Police Department will be honoring National Police Week, which is recognized as May 15 – May 21.

On Monday, May 16 at 9 a.m. HPD will host a ceremony to honor and remember the officers who have lost their lives, while in the line of duty. HPD's Honor Guard will conduct a flag raising ceremony in front of the Public Safety Building, 101 N. Main St.

Every year in May, National Police Week is recognized around the nation. National Police Week was established in 1962 by a joint resolution of Congress to honor those who lost their lives in the line of duty and their surviving families.

The Department also encourages the community to show support of local law enforcement with blue ribbons, wreaths, or a blue light in the window.
